PRINTED IN THE USA

Welcome to another year ... another fresh start, another grand opportunity to reach our goals, another chapter in this wonderful thing called LIFE!

2021 WAS QUITE A YEAR, but it offered a glimpse of promise as things slowly ventured back to normal. While today's "normal" is quite different from yesterday's "normal", 2021 did allow for the ease of restrictions related to COVID. While the restrictions varied based on what country you resided, we saw an increase of gatherings, promo events, photo shoots, and other face-to-face networking.

WE WERE FORTUNATE, and grateful, to be able to release 22 issues of RHK Magazine in 2021! Our wonderful team never missed a month ... in fact, we were able to publish twice monthly in some cases, thanks to the plethora of submissions we received!

Another accomplishment was our ability to expand our global reach, which now includes networking with models and photographers in USA, UK, Canada, Italy, and Singapore.

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST, was the approach to our subscription-based model. Now, once you subscribe for one low price, you will gain access to our entire library of publications ... over 235 issues featuring the world's hottest glamour and nude models!

Thank you for everything ... I sincerely appreciate each and every one of you! Let's make 2022 a great year!

TIPS

Don't Let Your Looks Blow Your Interview

The perfect resume means nothing if you can't sell yourself at a job interview. And most interviewers form an opinion before you shake their hand ... potential employers really do judge books by their covers.

So, how can you dress to get your foot in the door?

The most important element when dressing for a job interview is to evaluate your setting. Different offices enforce different dress codes -- an advertising agency, for example, might allow a little more personality than a government office. If the employer has an HR department, ask someone there about the company dress code. When in doubt, dress conservatively.

While you don't always need to wear a suit, keep in mind that you should dress for a position two levels higher than the one for which you are interviewing. If that means wearing a suit, choose a well-fitted, neatly-pressed suit in a dark, neutral color other than solid black.

Even if you opt for a more business-casual look, wear a collared shirt and a jacket. Make sure that all clothes fit well, are clean, and do not have loose threads or wrinkles.

And, although often overlooked, remember it's what is inside that counts. While your interviewer certainly shouldn't see them, it is important to choose the right kind of underwear. According to a recent Calvin Klein Underwear survey that polled 600 men and 400 women (available at survey.com), approximately 70 percent of those polled admit their undergarments are an extension of their personality. In addition, 80 percent say a good pair makes them feel more confident.

"Whether you are wearing a crisp white shirt with slacks or a tailored suit, it's important to set your foundation with a stylish and comfortable set of underwear."

- Jeannie Mai, celebrity stylist, host of Style Network's "How Do I Look" and "Extra" correspondent.

"Consider Calvin Klein's Classic Two Pack Boxer Briefs (www.ck.com). They are 100 percent cotton with a traditional fit, and are sexy, yet functional, with the signature logo waistband. Available in black and white, they can lend added confidence for your interview."

To add the final touches to your dressed-to-impress style, polish your shoes to demonstrate attention to detail. Cleanly groom your hair, and you'll show any respective employer that you mean business!

Hello, my name is Ava Lush, micro-bikini model. I am participating in professional modeling for the sake of confidence, beauty, fun, and sexiness!

I AM PARTICIPATING IN PROFESSIONAL MODELING
FOR THE SAKE OF CONFIDENCE, BEAUTY, FUN, AND SEXINESS!

I also use my modeling efforts to drive attention toward a better lifestyle because I value: wisdom / compassion toward self and others, daily exercise, supporting animal rights, and eating plant based. And, for those who call me a Goddess, respectfully, I am a mirror of this beauty in you.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN MODELING? I am on my third year of modeling.
Who or what inspired you to start modeling? I'm a risk taker!

How would you describe your model style? For my spiritual, vegan, and animal rights advocacy, I like to draw the audience's attention to my micro-bikini modeling! For the same reasons, I use Pastease too!

What is your most memorable moment as a model? My first professional photoshoot was in the Newport Beach area. My photographer and I were trying to find a shooting spot. We were going up and down people's back alleys and parking lots! I was basically doing a private "micro-bikini" show for people who lived there, and they loved it! What a surprise that was for me! Then, I went out onto the beach with the photographer, and consciously, felt very naked! Wow! That was a breakthrough experience.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term? My short-term goal is to model my micro-bikinis for professional photographers, and thereby, post those pictures in magazines. My long-term goal is making money via my micro-bikini pictures per different media sources, e.g., music videos.

What is your sexiest feature? I would say my body as a whole. It all works together from head-to-toe.

"Goal-oriented, passionate, hardworking, multitalented. Humble, yet powerful. Extroverted introvert. I've worked in the fitness industry for many years, pursuing fitness coaching as a fun hobby job and way to generate income while pursuing my undergrad studies focusing on Political Science, Law and Administration, and Public Policy. I've been competing at an international level in bodybuilding (bikini division) for a number of years. Since, I have started another hobby business making custom dietary conscious treats. Currently, I am on the path to pursuing graduate studies in Law and Public Administration ..."

What is your sexiest feature? My boobs often get people's immediate attention, and I've been told I have some of the longest, sexiest legs people have seen ... but it's my eyes that keep people looking.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term? I don't have a lot of time for modeling between work and school, so my goals tend to be short-term and to involve myself in projects through the Studio as they come up.

I am a full-time college student studying Marketing, working part-time at Hooters. I plan on working in sales and furthering my career into luxury real estate with plans to move to Florida.

How long have you been modeling? I have been modeling on and off for about 5 years.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling? Kim Kardashian inspired me to get into modeling and always represent my true authentic self.

How would you describe your modeling style? My modeling style is fun and flirty.

What is your most memorable moment as a model? One of my most memorable shoots modeling was for the Hooters Calendar.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term? My modeling goals are to reach a bigger audience and be the best person I can be on and off the camera.

What is your sexiest feature? My sexiest feature is my smile.
